LOCATION

Newquay is Cornwall's premier tourist resort, on the north Cornish coast approximately 8 miles north of the A30. Newquay plays a pivotal role in the Cornish economy and is famous for its world-renowned beaches and surfing culture.

Newquay benefits from Cornwall Airport Newquay and Space Port Cornwall, located on the eastern fringes of the town with a number of national and European flights with international connections. The premises are situated in a prominent corner location, close to the main railway station, Great Western and Tolcarne Beaches, Post Office, Aldi and Asda.

Newquay is part of the new Mid-Cornwall Metro coast to coast rail service which will create a sustainable transport corridor through central Cornwall by improving the current links between four of Cornwall's largest towns: Newquay, St Austell, Truro, and Falmouth/Penryn with direct rail links between Newquay and Falmouth. The proposed £56.8m project with include upgrading of Newquay Rail Platform is due to commence works this year.

The immediate area is to form part of the Newquay Town Centre Development Framework which is identified as the Great Western Quarter which is to establish a vibrant and functional gateway and multi modal transport interchange.
