Ongar Road, SW6

£1,950,000

This is a rare opportunity to purchase a four bedroom apartment which benefits from two terraces and a share of the freehold. This property is in turn-key condition with bespoke fitted storage, high ceilings, plenty of light and period features.

On the first floor, you are presented with a large reception room which has been finished to an impeccable standard with built in storage, designed by the current owners. There is also an eat-in kitchen and a cloakroom on this level.

On the second floor, there are two double bedrooms, one with an en-suite, a family bathroom and access onto the south-west facing balcony. On the third floor, there is another family bathroom which has recently been refurbished, a study area and two further double bedrooms with one leading onto the east facing terrace through bi-folding doors.

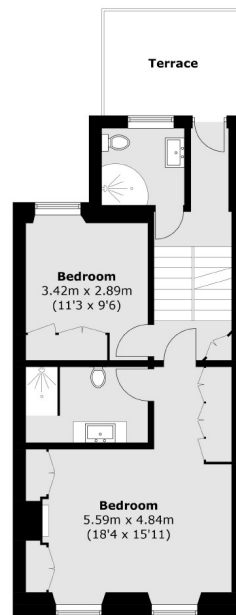

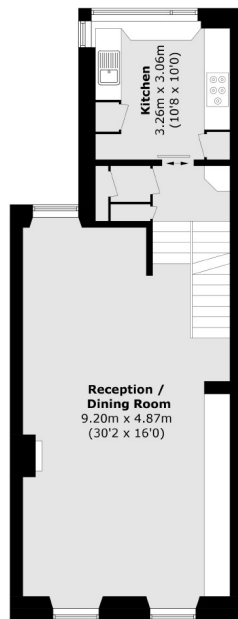

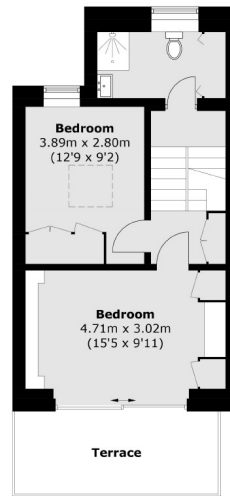

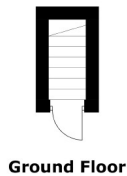

Ongar Road is located moments away from West Brompton station (District line & Overground). There is a choice of bus routes leading into the city, South Kensington, Fulham Broadway and many local amenities available on your doorstep.
