Historic City of Norwich

Everything you need close at hand

Sproston, which lies within the North East area of Norwich, offers a wide range of useful amenities for residents and visitors alike. St George's Place is ideally situated with access to several supermarkets, a post office and a number of banks, as well as doctors' and dentists' surgeries. The town also has three primary schools, three middle schools and a high school offering both sixth form and adult education.

These community facilities are set to grow even further as the new neighbourhood around St George's Place expands; new pedestrian and cycle ways, a primary school and a number of recreation areas are all in the pipeline.

The family-friendly Blue Boar Inn is a short stroll away, as is Sproston Manor Hotel which boasts dining and spa facilities plus an 18-hole golf course and fitness club. Meanwhile, children of all ages will enjoy the play areas at Sparhawk Park.

Just moments from home is the vibrant heart of the city, with its plethora of cultural, leisure, retail and dining facilities. Attractions include the city's 11th Century cathedral, the Theatre Royal and the Chapelfield shopping centre. Sproston has good transport links by road via the A47, while London Liverpool Street can be accessed in just under two hours from Norwich railway station.

Beautiful Norfolk has something for everyone

When you fancy a change from the excitement of the hustle and bustle of Norwich, St George's Place is also ideally located from which to explore all the attractions that the beautiful Norfolk countryside and coastline has to offer.

Just half an hour away by car is the idyllic Norfolk Broads. There's all manner of things to do when you get there; from hiring a boat and birdwatching to visiting a restored windmill or medieval church.

There are a huge amount of options when it comes to keeping the family entertained. The coastal town of Cromer is famous for its tasty crabs, wide open beaches and traditional theatre offering an array of concerts and the only End of the Pier Show in Europe, while thrill seekers will enjoy a visit to treetop adventure park BeWILDerwood in Hoveton.

Norfolk is well known for its stunning beaches, five of which have been honoured with Blue Flag awards; Hunstanton, Sheringham, Cromer, Sea Palling and Mundesley. In addition, Holkham was voted the best beach in Britain by a panel of over 100 travel writers; this stunning stretch of coastline features in the closing scenes of the hugely popular film Shakespeare in Love and is completely unspoilt to this day.

“Each of the homes at St George’s Place provides the perfect space to enjoy modern living. Our talented designers and craftsmen have ensured that no stone has been left unturned when it comes to quality”

It is not possible in a brochure of this nature to do more than give a general impression of the range, quality and variety of the homes we have on offer. The computer generated imagery, floor plans, configurations and layouts are included for guidance only. The Properties may vary in terms of elevational design details, position/size of garage and materials used. Such changes are due to our commitment to creating homes of individual character, although similar to others. We operate a policy of continuous product development so there may be material differences between the accommodation depicted in our literature and that on offer on any particular development or at different times during the progress of any development. Maps not to scale. Computer generated images of property types at St George's Place may not necessarily illustrate that property type in its setting at this development.
