Situation

Totnes town is the commercial centre for the South Hams. This part of Devon is renowned for its outstanding natural beauty with Dartmoor National Park ten miles to the north and stunning beaches and coastline ten miles to the south. The bustling medieval market town has a mainline railway station giving direct connections to London Paddington with easy connection to St. Pancras for Eurostar. There is also excellent access to the A38 Devon Expressway, linking Plymouth and Exeter where it joins the M5. Schooling in the area is excellent with a number of well-regarded primary and secondary schools. Totnes also boasts a thriving market as well as a good selection of shops, supermarkets, restaurants and inns.

Description

The Lion Brewery has been an iconic building on South Street and has had subjective works in recent years. Previously it housed the Potter Colin Kellam whose iconic cockerels can be seen on the roof tops. The ground floor had housed the pottery kilns with extractor vents still visible. Now used as a commercial studio and offers a variety of uses (subject to the necessary planning permission).

The two apartments had in the past lapsed planning permission to create one larger maisonette.

Accommodation

Flat Two (second floor) accessed via an external staircase leading to an impressive south facing roof terrace, glass balustrade taking in some splendid views across the surrounding countryside and down the river Dart Valley. Bi-fold doors opening into an open plan living space with valuated ceiling, exposed 'A' frames and gable end window. Cloakroom. Open fireplace enjoying plenty of natural light with roof lights and picture window. Kitchen with wooden worktops, undercounter wooden units, space for fridge, dishwasher and free-standing cooker. Inset Belfast sink with mixer tap. Stairs rise to upper floor.
