Situation

56 A High Street is a hidden gem steeped with history. The flexible and generous 1527 sq. ft. of accommodation is currently arranged as two floors. Full of period features this light and airy home has views of the castle from the front. This Grade II listed building that probably dates from the 17th century, with later updates. The property is part of the original Poultry Walk, which was built in Tudor times to protect poultry stalls from the weather, whilst the covered Butter Walk opposite sheltered dairy stalls.

Totnes town is the commercial centre for the South Hams. This part of Devon is renowned for its outstanding natural beauty with Dartmoor National Park ten miles to the north and stunning beaches and coastline ten miles to the south. The bustling medieval market town has a mainline railway station giving direct connections to London. There is also excellent access to the A38 Devon Expressway, linking Plymouth and Exeter where it joins the M5. Schooling in the area is excellent with a number of well-regarded primary and secondary schools. Totnes also boasts a thriving market as well as a good selection of shops, supermarkets, restaurants and inns.
