Totnes (4.2 miles), Dartmouth (13.6 miles), Kingsbridge (12.6 miles), Newton Abbot (12.6 miles), Plymouth (25.4 miles), Exeter (32.8 miles) via Devon Expressway/A38. London Paddington via Totnes Train Station approx. 2.45 hours).

Situation

Harbertonford is only a short drive from Totnes and all its facilities. The village itself offers an excellent shop and post office, petrol station, popular church, village hall and primary school. The village is actively involved with its close neighbouring village of Harberton, which falls within the same parish and also offers a pub, church, village hall and playing field. The ancient borough of Totnes enjoys a prominent position above the River Dart. It is the second oldest borough in England and is full of facilities to include its own hospital, supermarket, interesting shops and galleries together with the riverside walks, Guild Hall, Churches and its very own Norman Castle. The railway station links directly with London Paddington and the A38 Devon Expressway is only 15 minutes away joining it at Buckfastleigh, giving excellent access to Plymouth and northbound Exeter.
