SUBSTANTIAL ACCOMMODATION, SOUTH EAST FACING GARDEN WITH VIEWS OF 'THE MERE' - Situated on the highly desirable leafy, 'Lodge Road' this superb, FIVE BEDROOM semi-detached property sits on a generous size plot with views of 'The Mere' to both first and second floor accommodation at the rear.

Originally a detached dwelling, the property was believed to have been split in the 1930's by a local builder into two generous semi-detached homes that we see today. This particular property has accommodation arranged over three floors and would suit a wide range of discerning buyers needs! The property is centrally positioned within Alsager with excellent schooling and Alsager Sports Hub on your doorstep, along with a growing number of amenities that the centre of the village has to offer within walking distance.

Accompanying the home are a wealth of features to note, some of which include: Gas central heating, a grand entrance hall with exposed wooden flooring and wide staircase, a large lounge with walk-in bay window, a versatile second reception room with a fabulous Victorian carved fireplace and overmantle, a superb open-plan kitchen/diner complete with granite floor tiles and working surfaces, a walk-in pantry and electric 'Aga', there is also a separate utility and downstairs WC.

The first floor has an impressive galleried landing and there are three generous double rooms, with built-in robes and en-suite facilities to the principal room, in addition to the family bathroom with its white four piece sanitary suite. The second floor has two further spacious double rooms and a vast amount of useful storage to offer.

Externally, the property benefits from an attached garage and a large sweeping driveway to the front. The rear garden enjoys an excellent degree of privacy along with a south-easterly aspect.

To fully appreciate the property's true size, potential, location and many favourable attributes early viewing is strongly advised!
