STEPHENSON BROWNE

NO ONWARD CHAIN WITH SUPERB PLOT & GROUNDS - A traditional, two bedroom true bungalow, enjoying a convenient position within Church Lawton on a highly desirable, increasingly popular road with excellent road links and being situated within close proximity to Alsager town and its many amenities. The bungalow stands proudly on a plot extending to approximately 0.23 acres with scope to extend and alter the existing accommodation without impacting garden space (subject to planning permission & relevant consents). The potential here is huge! Internal inspection will reveal well planned accommodation of pleasing proportions throughout in good decorative order.

Accompanying this spacious bungalow are a number of notable features, some of which include: hardwood double glazing, modern composite external doors, new carpets to the kitchen, lounge and hall areas, a full gas central heating system, a welcoming porch with tiled flooring, a spacious lounge with dual aspect and feature fireplace, a fitted breakfast kitchen which is perfect for someone to update to their own taste/specification plus a useful separate utility room. There are also three good size, versatile double bedrooms which can have a range of uses to suit any buyer and a pleasant shower room suite with white sanitary ware which is complemented by an additional handy Wc.

Externally, the property benefits from an extended driveway providing ample off road parking for numerous vehicles, a detached garage and established gardens to both front and rear, with the rear being of particular mention due to its size and excellent degree of privacy!

To fully appreciate the property's potential, true size and superb rear garden, call Stephenson Browne today to book your all-important viewing!
