STEPHENSON BROWNE

HIGHLY SOUGHT AFTER LOCATION - THREE BEDROOM PERIOD HOME -
Occupying a prime position within Alsager, just a minute's walk away from town and the local amenities, this lovely 1930's period semi-detached home provides the perfect family accommodation, having been well maintained throughout and enjoying beautiful gardens to both front and rear.

Accompanying the home are a number of features worthy of noting, some of which include: double glazing throughout, gas central heating, parquet flooring, bay windows as well as those traditional features we all love such as coving, picture rails and ceiling roses! The property layout consists of the entrance hallway, handy WC, two spacious reception rooms, both boasting feature fireplaces and one hosting French doors out to the garden. The fully fitted kitchen comprises of a range of wall, base and drawer units offering ample working surface space and the fundamental integral appliances.

To the first floor you will find a bright and airy landing space with access to all first floor rooms including two impressive doubles, both with fitted wardrobes and the principal hosting a walk-in bay window. Bedroom three is a well proportioned single and the contemporary bathroom is home to a three piece suite with over the bath shower.

Externally, the property presents a lovely frontage, with soil borders enjoying a number of decorative plants and shrubs, surrounding a lawn. A driveway allows invaluable off road parking for approximately two cars. An exemplary addition to this home is the sizeable garage, giving you the potential to convert to a summer room, workshop or just providing a great amount of storage.

The rear is fantastically private, with Indian stone paving ideal for seating, and lawn with established borders filled with trees, shrubs and flowers.

To truly appreciate everything this wonderful property has to offer, viewings come highly recommended. Call Stephenson Browne today to arrange yours!!
