STEPHENSON BROWNE

'The Orchard' is an imposing Victorian, four double bedroom detached home tucked away on one of Alsager's most desirable roads. Dating back to the 1800s, this highly impressive period property boasts a fantastic internal floorplan and is positioned on substantial grounds with mature gardens encompassing the property.

As you step into this beautiful home, you will immediately be greeted by the warm and inviting ambiance of the dining hall, with feature log burning fire and access to remaining ground floor rooms, such as two principal reception rooms. The large windows throughout the house provide breath-taking views of the surrounding gardens and allow for an abundance of natural light filling the space, which is especially evident in the lounge with it's dual aspect windows, one of which is a decorative arch where the original door used to be. As well as this, the room is home to an attractive feature fireplace with cast iron surround, intricate tiling and wooden mantle. Adjacent to here is a separate sitting room, or 'family room'.

The kitchen diner enjoys a range of units, including island, hosts plenty of space for a dining table, pantry, door to surprisingly large utility room and double doors out onto the garden. Completing the ground floor is the brilliant addition of an extra laundry room that provides entry to the WC.

The first floor landing boasts another striking arched window to front elevation, along with four exceptional double bedrooms. The principal enjoying extensive fitted wardrobes, bedroom two being the ideal guest suite, being open plan to an additional space that would make an ideal nursery/children's room (or a fantastic principal with dressing room!). Bedroom three provides it's own en-suite and bedroom four, currently utilised as an office, is still a good sized double, with a superb handy storage cupboard. You will also find a stunning family bathroom and separate shower room.
