There is land to the opposite side of the property currently owned by the Parochial Church Council of the Parish of Lightcliffe ("the PCC"). PCC has granted the current owner to use the land to park, so there is the potential for off-road parking providing a similar agreement is made with the new owner and the PCC. Please be aware: This area of land is the only access to the open graveyard and therefore access is sometimes required by the church at certain times, i.e. for burials/maintenance. The property is surrounded by fields and the graveyard to the rear.
