Situation

An immaculately presented and significantly updated end of terrace house exclusively for the over 55's, within minutes walk of the centre of the village benefiting from a garage, private patio and communal gardens

Ditchling with its beautiful views of the South Downs is a historic village playing host to a selection of local shops, cafés, a church, post office, health centre and two public houses including The Bull, an award-winning gastro pub. The larger village of Hassocks, with its mainline train station is a short drive away and provides regular rail services to London and a more comprehensive array of shops for all ages.

The property has been significantly updated over the years and benefits from a refitted luxury first floor shower room, oak floors and Office with fitted desk and shelves. There are 2 good sized reception rooms both benefiting from oak flooring with the dining room having double glazed patio doors leading out onto the extended sunny rear patio. The first floor has 3 bedrooms with one of the bedrooms currently being used as an office. There is also a utility room with fitted units and a w.c. A paved patio adjoins the rear of the property leading to an area of communal gardens with a feature brick and flint wall. There is also the benefit of a garage.
