Situation

A much improved charming and character filled cottage with a private part walled rear garden, situated a short walk from the centre of the village

Ditchling, nestled within the South Downs National Park, is a historic village playing host to a selection of local shops, cafes, a church, and two public houses including The Bull, an award-winning gastro pub. The larger village of Hassocks is a short drive away, as is the city of Brighton and Hove, both offering mainline train connections to London and a greater array of shops and restaurants. This area of Sussex also benefits from a variety of superb private and state schools for all ages, all within easy reach of the village.

Situated a short walk from the centre of the village, this quaint cottage has been extended over the years creating a very well presented home full of charm and character features. The ground floor has 2 reception rooms with the sitting room benefiting from a focal fireplace and gas fired stove. The dining room and kitchen are at the rear of the property with bi-fold doors and a stable door opening out onto the landscaped rear gardens. There are 2 double bedrooms on the first floor with the principal bedroom having a cast iron decorative fireplace and fitted wardrobe cupboards in the recesses. The re-fitted bathroom has a modern fresh touch to it and there is the benefit of 2 large cupboards accessed from the landing. The gloriously private rear garden is walled on 2 sides. Predominantly laid to lawn with a paved patio adjoining the rear of the property, the borders are bursting with colourful plants, shrubs and trees typical of a traditional English cottage garden. The front garden is predominantly laid to lawn and accessed via a wrought iron gate.
