ELR are delighted to be able to bring to the open market this truly stunning four bedroom detached family home which was the former Jones Homes Showhome. Located in a highly desirable area of Wickersley enjoying the benefits of this exclusive and sought-after cul-de-sac modern development.

The impressive former show home enjoys a spacious entrance hallway providing access to the large and well proportioned living room which benefits from a feature fireplace and large bay window. The property also boasts a magnificent family kitchen & dining area benefitting from modern high quality wall & base units, integrated appliances and ample worktops, in addition there is a cosy sitting room opening into the sun lounge which overlooks the attractive and well maintained enclosed garden. This is a fantastic family space & undoubtedly the main hub of the property.

The upper floor features four generously sized bedrooms, two with modern fitted wardrobes and exceptional en-suites plus a large family bathroom.

Fronting is a double side by side driveway providing off road vehicular parking in turn leading to the integrated garage. To the rear is a lovely mature garden with various tree and shrub borders.

There are highly regarded schools in close proximity in particular Wickersley School which is within approx. 300 yards. A short walk to a large selection of shops, bars, restaurants and amenities in Wickersley & there are bus services upon nearby Morthen Road & Bawtry Road serving the town centre. A great location for the commuter as the M18 motorway is within 1.5 miles at Hellaby.

All in all a tremendous family home which can only be truly appreciated via an internal inspection.
