1-3 Turner Lane

Description

Tucked away behind charming painted gates on a cobbled forecourt in the heart of Whiston village, 1-3 Turner Lane is a home like no other—a rare blend of rich heritage, quality craftsmanship, and contemporary comfort. Formerly the village Post Office and grocer's shop, this beautifully reimagined period property has been sympathetically restored to an exceptional standard, offering over 2,500 square feet of adaptable living space filled with character, warmth, and thoughtful design.

- Historic Character – Formerly Whiston's Post Office, dating back to the 1700s with a rich and varied village history.
- Flexible Layout – Over 2,500 sq ft with three double bedrooms (including a versatile loft room above the attached garage), two bathrooms, and a study.
- Gated Setting – Private cobbled driveway, mature landscaped gardens, and an attached double garage.
- High-Quality Finish – Fully renovated with premium fixtures, a sleek open-plan kitchen, and boutique-style bathrooms.
- Period Charm – Vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, and original stonework beautifully blended with modern style.
- Peace of Mind – Quiet village setting with excellent amenities nearby
