Harewood Crescent, Oakworth Keighley

Well-Presented Three-Bedroom Semi-Detached Family Home. Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac, this delightful family home boasts a modern kitchen and dining room. The enclosed rear garden provides a private outdoor retreat, while the driveway and under-house garage offer ample parking and storage space.

Well presented three bedroom semi detached family home decorated to a high standard throughout. This stunning home benefits from a modern kitchen area and luxury shower room. The property is located in a cul de sac position in the popular Oakworth village with good schools, amenities and transport links to nearby Keighley. The property briefly comprises; light and airy lounge and modern kitchen/diner. To the first floor there are three good size bedrooms, two are doubles and luxury house shower room. An open staircase leads to the attic which the current vendors use as an occasional room. To the outside of the property there is a garage space which is currently used as an additional room. Driveway providing ample off street parking. To the rear there is a good size enclosed garden. In our opinion this property needs to be viewed to fully appreciate the accommodation on offer.
