welcome to

Deer View Hill Top Road, Hainworth Keighley

This exceptional period home combines a wealth of character with generous living space, seamlessly blending traditional charm and modern comfort.

Throughout the property, exposed beams and natural stonework highlight its heritage, while striking Yorkshire stone fireplaces serve as beautiful focal points in key rooms. This impressive home includes newly fitted bathrooms throughout, all finished to an excellent standard, and original built-in wardrobes with solid oak doors in three of the double bedrooms. The property has recently benefited from a brand-new roof, and boasts two fully boarded lofts ideal for additional storage. Set in an elevated position, it enjoys stunning, far-reaching countryside views, perfectly placed for those seeking a peaceful lifestyle.

The property features an impressive, self-contained annex, ideal for multi-generational living. It has its own private entrance leading into a modern kitchen with space for a washing machine, under-counter fridge freezer and oven. From here the kitchen flows seamlessly into a dining area and a stylish lounge, all designed to complement the character of the main house. Upstairs, the annex boasts two double bedrooms, each with integrated wardrobes, exposed beams, and charming character features. The annex bathroom is sleek and ultra-modern, featuring a contemporary shower room. Additional highlights include motion sensor lighting throughout, fully insulated, and separate heating controls, allowing independent temperature management from the main house.
