Whitechapel is an incredibly vibrant and centrally located part of east London. A short walk or cycle from both the River Thames and the City, the area offers excellent local amenities. The famed Punjabi restaurant Tayyabs is a short walk away, as is the much-loved bakery Rinkoff and several excellent coffee shops including Aldgate Coffee House. The eclectic George Tavern on Jubilee Street is recommended for drinks and occasional music events, while the Whitechapel Gallery and independent Genesis cinema provide cultural distractions. Nearby Spitalfields and Shoreditch offer further opportunity for dining, entertainment and shopping, with restaurants including Ottolenghi, Cecconi's and St. John Bread & Wine. Spitalfields Market and the surrounding streets now offer shopping opportunities comparable to the West End.

Transport links are excellent; Whitechapel underground station runs Circle and Hammersmith & City Line services, as well as providing access to the east London branch of the Overground. Crossrail station for the Elizabeth Line is now open, from which trains will run to Bond Street in 10 minutes and Heathrow Airport in 38 minutes.
