

Willow Cottage Chapel Lane, Ellel, Lancaster, Lancashire, LA2 0PN

A delightful period cottage set within walking distance of the University of Lancaster and a short drive from junction 33 of the M6 for the commuting professional. Situated on Chapel Lane in the ever popular hamlet of Ellel, this distinguished home offers the rare blend of charm and style. The intelligently designed living accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance lobby area which leads to a spacious yet cosy lounge, a lovely fitted kitchen and a light and airy dining room. To the first floor are two well proportioned bedrooms and the family bathroom and to the second floor is another very comfortably sized bedroom. Externally the property is a rarity for the location as it boasts not only a garage but off street parking for several vehicles. It also has beautifully maintained gardens, laid to lawn with decorative mature shrub and plant borders and an open view of surrounding countryside. Internal features include tasteful decor throughout and a beautiful wood burning stove which really brings the cottage to life on those cold winter mornings. Situated just outside the Forest of Bowland AONB, this home lies in picturesque yet convenient location with fairly direct access into Lancaster city centre along the A6. The historical city provides a wide range of amenities including shops, highly regarded schools, the award winning University of Lancaster, a mainline railway station and the Royal Lancaster Infirmary. The village of Galgate is very close by and itself offers amenities for those matters a little more urgent.
