

50 New Quay Road, Lancaster, LA1 5UZ

Rest your head in this simply stunning 4/5 bedroom home, located on the historic Lancaster Quayside of the River Lune. Sit back and watch the ever changing landscapes, from the comfort and warmth of a beautifully appointed and presented home. Built in 2015, this 'Helmsley' style build by Barratt Homes offers open plan living spaces set over three floors, with an NHBC guarantee.

St. George's Quay was built in 1750, during Lancaster's Golden Age as a port. Importing items such as sugar, cotton, rum and mahogany, whilst exporting furniture and general merchandise to the colonies in North America and West Indies. Now a days, the Quayside has a much quieter life. Serving as a stunning back to Lancaster dramatic history, at the other end of the Quay from this home, you will find a busy and vibrant market town, with a plethora of Easters, wine bars and shops. With the M6 motorway and the nearby West Coast mainline train station of Lancaster providing excellent transport links
