

66F New Quay Road, Lancaster, LA1 5UZ

A beautifully presented first floor apartment, with stunning views across the River Lune and historic St Georges Quay. Built in 2017 by Redrow homes, this superb apartment has two spacious bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, open plan living kitchen diner and two shower rooms. With allotted parking to the rear, this is perfect for first time buyers, couples or those looking for a lock and up and leave.

Located at the end of the historic St Georges Quay, this provides stunning scenic walks to Lancaster city centre and Glasson Dock. With a plethora of local shops, restaurants and shops in Lancaster itself, this property is perfectly suited for those looking for amenities with a touch of peace and quiet. With the M6 motorway a short drive away and Lancaster train station provides access to the West Coast mainline, this property is perfect for commuters or those who like to explore.

Layout (with approx. dimensions)

Entrance

Entered via an external door, this leads into a communal entrance hall. Housing the properties letter box and meter cupboards, there are stairs which lead to the first floor. Leading through the internal wooden door, this leads into a small landing area, where the apartments front door is located to the left.

Entrance Hall

With a UPVC double glazed window overlooking parking to the rear. With an intercom telephone point, this room is fitted with a built-in utility cupboard, with plumbing for a washer dryer, with a second built in storage cupboard housing the gas central heating boiler, and pressure water cylinder, as well as the WIFI connection hub. This leads down into:
