

Inside The Home

A desirable first floor apartment to the North of Lancaster, well suited to first time buyers or buy to let investors. Recently refurbished to a high standard, the property features new windows and front door, a renewed roof, modern décor and freshly fitted carpets throughout. Buyers will appreciate the ready to move in condition and updated finish. Entering the property through a UPVC double glazed door, you'll immediately walk up the stairs to the apartment. There is a tastefully appointed lounge, a contemporary fitted kitchen, a modern bathroom suite featuring a Jacuzzi bath with overhead shower and two well proportioned bedrooms. There is under floor heating throughout the apartment, each room controlled by a thermostat. The hallway connecting all of the rooms, contains a storage cupboard for all those items you'd like to keep out of sight and there is access to a boarded loft.

Let's Take A Closer Look At The Area

Situated in a well connected area, Watery Lane is nicely tucked away yet only a stones throw from the Bay Gateway, providing quick access to the M6 motorway within approx. 10 minutes. With a highly regarded local primary school and college a short walk away, amenities including a supermarket, rugby club and local shops on the doorstep, as well as local bus routes providing access to a range of local high schools, and access in and around the local area.

Let's Step Outside

The first floor apartment boasts a private garage to the rear of the apartment complex, communal gardens which are well maintained to the front and rear along with communal parking spaces which are on a first come, first served basis.
