Paul Carr welcomes you to this substantially extended cottage which lies in the heart of Burntwood. Extensive works have been carried out including a two-storey side extension.

An internal inspection reveals a spacious living room, a fitted kitchen which has huge scope for modernisation, off the kitchen there is a family bathroom and a second sitting room which features glass-stained windows.

To the first floor are three double bedrooms and a slightly smaller fourth bedroom. This property also benefits from a loft conversion which has been done to building regulations. The property retains many original features and benefits from off road parking and a private rear garden.

Viewing is highly advised to fully appreciate the space and scope on offer. Call Paul Carr Burntwood to arrange an appointment!
