Property Details

A fantastic two double bedroom, two bathroom apartment with a private terrace enjoying summer sunsets and city landmark views. Set on the seventh floor of a secure modern development with intercom entry, CCTV, and a lift, the location is ideal. Abundant natural light pours through expansive, energy-efficient windows, enhancing the property's excellent insulation for year-round comfort and reduced energy costs. The heart of the home is the spacious open-plan reception, bathed in natural light from floor-to-ceiling glass doors leading to the private terrace—perfect for unwinding, entertaining, or dining al fresco with breathtaking views of the London Eye, Vauxhall, Battersea Power Station, and Brockwell Park. The sleek, contemporary kitchen offers integrated appliances, gloss cabinetry, and ample storage. Both bedrooms are generous doubles, with the principal featuring built-in storage and an elegant en-suite. The second bedroom is versatile as a guest room, nursery, or office. A stylish main bathroom offers a peaceful retreat for relaxation with a bathtub and the copious hallway storage completes this stunning home.
