58 HIGH STREET , Pinner HA5 5PZ

Location

Pinner is an affluent North West London village which is served by the Metropolitan Line Tube Line. The village centre is well known for its wide range of quality restaurants, pubs and shops. There are 3 large supermarkets (Sainsburys, M&S and Lidl) and good public parking.

58 High Street is a detached period building sitting adjacent to the Parish Church, the focal point of Pinner.

Description

The building has been recently fully refurbished with an emphasis on the internal period features of exposed brickwork, timber beams and leaded light windows. This sits alongside modern installations of new glazed rooflights, air conditioning, integrated IT cabling and wood flooring.

The final suite remaining is a 984 sq. ft. fully self contained office.

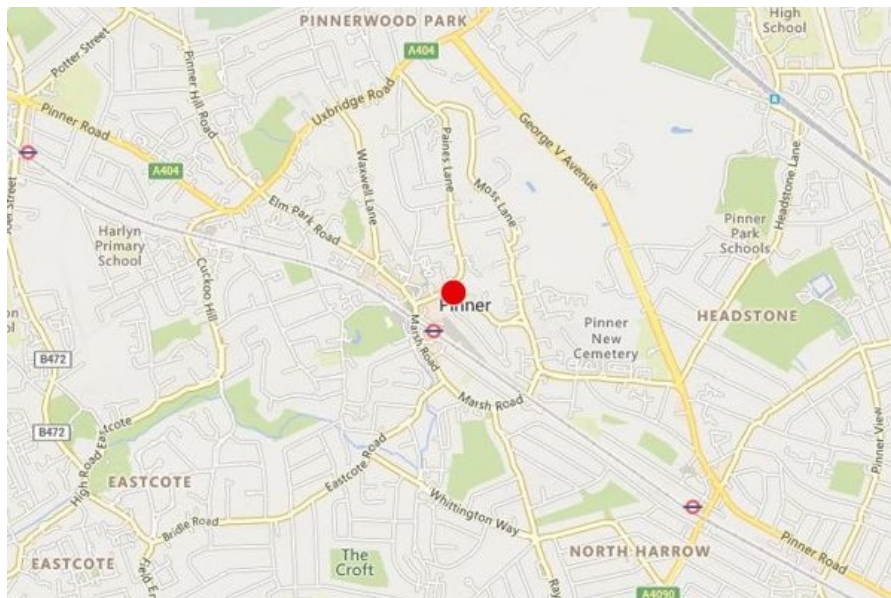

The suites have access to a large meeting room, male and females washrooms, kitchen and break-out area/reception.
