Ground Floor
Entry is via a front porch which has storage space for shoes and coats. This leads directly into the entrance hall which provides access to a cloakroom and all other parts of the property. The hallway has an attractive wooden block floor which extends through to the sitting room and the family room. The sitting room is double aspect with a fireplace as its main focal point and access into the conservatory at the rear of the property and is currently used as a music room. The conservatory also provides direct access to the rear patio. The modern contemporary style kitchen is semi open planned to a triple aspect dining room and creates an ideal kitchen breakfast room area, although if preferred could be used as a family room. The dining room has views over the rear garden and provides further access via a large sliding patio door. The third reception is currently used as a large study and could alternatively be used as a good size family room. A utility room completes the downstairs.

First Floor
The first floor landing has two large cupboards, one of which is used as a linen store and provides access to four good size bedrooms, one of which has an en suite shower room and all are conveniently placed for the family bathroom, one of the bedrooms has a sink. The property has gas central heating, which is served via a combi boiler and the windows are an attractive leaded light and mainly double glazed.

The Outside
There is a good size rear garden which is very private and would be ideal for a family or keen gardeners. There is a patio overlooking a large lawn and mature planted borders. A secure pedestrian access leads to the front which has a large block paved drive which could accommodate up to six cars and provides access to the garage. There's hedging to either side and attractive planted borders.

The Location
Berkhamsted itself is a busy market town, located to the West of Hertfordshire and just 30 minutes from London by train. Perhaps the town's most prominent role in National affairs came in 1066 when William the Conqueror was handed the English Crown. Berkhamsted Castle was built following the granting of the crown, and famous names associated with it include Geoffrey Chaucer who was Clerk of Works and Thomas Becket who was Constable of the Castle in the 12th Century. Substantial ruins of the Castle still remain today.

There is a good range of leisure facilities in the area. There is walking and riding just minutes away in the surrounding countryside and on the National Trust's 5,000 acre Ashridge Estate, while nearby golf courses include Ashridge, Berkhamsted and The Grove. The area offers excellent schooling, including Berkhamsted School, founded in 1541, and Tring Park School for the Performing Arts. Berkhamsted offers a wide range of shopping, from independent boutiques to national names such as Waitrose and M&S Simply Food. The larger towns of Hemel Hempstead and Watford offer wider facilities. Milton Keynes and London are both easily accessible too.

Transport Links
Today, the town is highly desirable for commuters, with excellent transport links by road and rail. The mainline train station provides a regular and direct link to London Euston in a little over 30 minutes. Major road connections nearby include the M25 (J20) and the M1 (J8 and J9). The A41 dual carriageway runs to the South of the town, providing an excellent connection to Hemel Hempstead, Watford, Tring and Aylesbury.
