The living room has a window to the front and opens directly to the dining room which has sliding patio doors opening to the garden.

The spacious landing area has two windows to the side and doors opening to all three of the bedrooms and to the family bathroom which is fitted with a white three piece suite to include a vanity unit with recessed wc and wash basin. All three of the bedrooms boast fitted wardrobes with two of the bedrooms overlooking the front and the third overlooking the rear.

There is an extensive flagstone patio area directly to the rear of the house which leads to the main portion of the garden which is laid to lawn with two pathways leading towards the rear boundary where there is a second patio area with a good size, solid and water tight timber framed outhouse. The rear garden is fully enclosed by fencing and there are a range of mature trees, shrubs and planting throughout.

The Location
Hemel Hempstead is a popular new town in Hertfordshire with a mixture of new, modern and older architecture and enjoys numerous open green spaces including the recently rejuvenated Jellicoe Water Gardens in the town centre. The town centre has recently been regenerated and is now a vibrant busy attraction. The Marlow's indoor shopping centre offers chain and independent shops whilst the outside Riverside boasts a number of larger chains and a Pizza Express Restaurant. The local area of Apsley is an outer district of Hemel Hempstead and is still a busy commercial centre. The Victorian shops that arose when it was a mill town now house news agents, public houses, restaurants and a range of small businesses. The former mill sites are taken up with supermarkets, retail parks and offices.

Travel Links
Situating 24 miles to the north west of London and conveniently served by the M1 and M25 motorways, Hemel Hempstead has quickly grown in popularity in the last few years. We have seen more migration from the London suburbs, largely due to its fantastic commuter links including the London Northwestern Railway Overground train to London Euston taking only 35 minutes. Both London Luton and London Heathrow airports are easily accessible via the M1 and M25 respectively.

Education In The Area
The property benefits from having a number of local primary schools within less than one mile, and for senior pupils, both Hemel Hempstead School and Longdean School are just over a mile away. Both have sixth form facilities. Abbot's Hill School is a local independent school for girls aged three to seventeen years, while Chesham Prep & Berkhamsted Independent Schools for boys and girls are only a short drive.
