Ground Floor
Upon entering this stunning home, you're welcomed by a spacious entrance hall with direct access to the principal reception room, which overlooks the front of the property, and a dedicated study—perfect for working from home.

At the heart of the home, the elegant dining room flows seamlessly into a spectacular open-plan kitchen/breakfast/family room. This space is beautifully appointed with a comprehensive range of base and eye-level units, including a central island with a breakfast bar. Bi-folding doors open out onto the rear garden, creating a perfect setting for indoor-outdoor living.

A door from the kitchen leads to a generously sized utility room, with ample space and plumbing for both a washing machine and tumble dryer. From here, access continues to the rear lobby, which features a side door to the pedestrian access—ideal for returning from walks or gardening—along with a useful ground floor cloakroom.

First Floor
Stairs from the first floor rise to the second floor while the spacious landing space has doors opening to the first three double bedrooms. The family bathroom has been fitted with a high quality three piece suite while the second bedroom boasts both a walk in dressing area and an ensuite shower room.

Second Floor
Dominating the entire second floor is the impressive principal bedroom suite. This expansive L-shaped space offers ample room for both a comfortable sleeping area and a dedicated living zone. Thoughtfully designed, it features generous storage built into the eaves alongside a fitted wardrobe. Four Velux windows flood the suite with natural light, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere. Completing the space is a second ensuite shower room, adding both convenience and luxury.

Outside
To the front of the property, there is an extensive block-paved driveway offering ample parking for several vehicles, bordered to one side by attractive slate shingle. A pedestrian pathway runs along the side of the house, providing access to a garden cabin—complete with power and lighting—as well as an extensive storage cabin.

At the rear of the property, a generous block-paved patio spans the width of the house, flanked by two wide, raised borders. A central pathway divides the neatly maintained lawn and leads to the rear boundary, where you'll find a raised timber deck and a secondary flagstone patio—ideal for entertaining or relaxing in a more secluded spot.

The Location
The property is positioned within the charming semi-rural village of Studham, situated amidst the breath-taking South Bedfordshire countryside on the eastern fringes of The Chiltern Hills. Renowned as one of Britain's most desirable villages, Studham captivates with its idyllic surroundings and tranquil ambiance. Surrounded by stunning natural scenery, residents of Studham enjoy easy access to a wealth of attractions, including Whipsnade Zoo, the enchanting Whipsnade Tree Cathedral, and the majestic Dunstable Downs, all just a stone's throw away. For everyday conveniences and local shopping, the nearby market town of Tring offers a quaint selection of amenities, while the neighbouring towns of Berkhamsted and Harpenden provide a wider array of services and facilities including excellent schooling.

Travel Links
Studham's prime location also ensures excellent connectivity, with the M1 Junction 9 a mere 6 miles away, offering swift access to London and beyond. For those opting for public transport, efficient train links to London are available for nearby Berkhamsted or Harpenden, boasting quick journeys from 30 minutes, making Studham an ideal choice for commuters and explorers alike, seeking both urban convenience and rural tranquillity.
