Well maintained throughout for the past 17 years by the current owners, this fantastic family home has many advantages featuring four reception rooms including a south-facing sunroom, a spacious kitchen-breakfast room equipped with an island and breakfast bar, a utility room, and a downstairs cloakroom. The first floor enjoys four fantastic bedrooms with the opportunity to create a fifth bedroom, a modern family bathroom and two en-suites with one needing modernisation. From each of the bedrooms is a glorious view towards the sea or the downs and its south-facing position fills the house with sunlight. Outside is a fantastic, landscaped garden which offers ample decking providing the opportunity to lounge or dine al fresco style, and also offers an untouched wildlife haven with trees and plants offering a fantastic place to watch the visiting wild birds and native red squirrels. To the side of the property is approximately 2.5 acres of additional land which boasts ample opportunity. Large solar panels can also be found in this space which are connected to the house and provide a small financial return. A detached double garage with a block paved driveway to the side of the house presents off-road parking as well as additional accommodation above offering huge potential to be used as an office space or additional guest accommodation.

Offering a convenient lifestyle within a quiet cul-de-sac, this gorgeous family home is ideally located within a short distance to plenty of local amenities including a large convenience store, supermarkets, and a medical centre. A selection of unique shops, a superb choice of eateries, and a number of great places for family entertainment are also very close by such as popular cream tea establishments in the charming Shanklin Old Village, traditional seafront amusements and expansive sandy beaches, as well as a local theatre hosting top acts all year round. The area also offers a number of scenic footpaths which lead into Shanklin Old Village and along the expansive seafront or onto the majestic cliffs at Luccombe and towards Ventnor. Regular bus and train services are within easy reach providing transport connections across the Island, plus the train from Shanklin conveniently links to the high-speed mainland foot passenger service from Ryde Pier to Portsmouth Harbour.

The accommodation comprises of a large entrance hall leading to a downstairs cloakroom, cloak cupboard, stairwell to the first-floor landing, four reception rooms, the kitchen-breakfast room, and two storage cupboards. The stairwell leads onto a spacious first-floor landing which leads to four double bedrooms (two with en-suites) and the family bathroom.

Welcome to 23 Vaughan Way

This beautiful double fronted detached family home boasts a fantastic, stepped walkway with a low-level brick wall at either side and two pillars with lanterns, leading up to the canopy porch and front door. A small, grassed lawn at either side of the walkway is at the front of the property and mature flower beds frame the front façade perfectly. The green painted multi-pane front door leads into the entrance hall.

A striped carpet compliments the neutral wall colour and offers white painted features including skirting boards and door frames.

Family Bathroom

Boasting a large walk-in shower cubicle with a glass sliding door and a chrome shower head with a 'Mira' digital thermostatic control and a separate bath with modern chrome hot and cold taps. Large neutral glossy floor tiles create a modern finish and there are matte white wall tiles with colourful detail as well as a wall-mounted mirror. The suite includes a pedestal hand basin with a modern swan neck mixer tap and a dual flush w.c with built-in storage cabinets over. Featuring a large obscure glass window to the side aspect, this room also benefits from recessed ceiling lights and a chrome heated towel rail.

Garden

This beautiful south facing rear garden offers a peaceful and secluded spot to enjoy the countryside setting and to watch all the different local wildlife that regularly visits the garden. A decked area at the rear which spans the length of the house enjoys sunshine all day and provides the perfect spot for al fresco dining. A beautifully landscaped garden gently slopes up to an elevated position with steps in the bank providing ease of access and a timber built decked terrace within an elevated position enjoys sunshine with beautiful views of the downs to one side and the rear elevation of the house. A few shrubs can be found on the bank and a mature shrub line separates the garden with the land to the side. The block paved driveway at the side of the house continues up to the lawn on one side and provides steps up to the grassed area and to the gravel path that leads to the room above the garage. Beyond this is a fantastic bank littered with mature trees and ivy which has been left for the wildlife, encouraging red squirrels and wild birds to the garden. At the side of the property is a large field measuring approximately 2.5 acres which offers the opportunity for a smallholding, to merge with the existing garden or to build additional accommodation (subject to gaining planning permission). This area hosts large solar panels which aid the electrics and help heat the water with a small financial return.

Garage Room

22'10 x 13'06 (6.96m x 4.11m)

Converted in 2019, this room is situated above the garage and provides a window to the front aspect as well as a Velux window, and has been boarded and insulated. Offering an opportunity to be converted into an office space, additional accommodation or storage area, this space is lit with two ceiling lights and is finished with white wall décor.

Garage

23'01 x 19'06 (7.04m x 5.94m)

This fantastic double garage space is enclosed by two electric roller doors and hosts a Upvc door to the side aspect. Complete with electricity and lighting, this space also includes base and wall cabinets plus ample space for storage.

Parking

This generous family home provides driveway parking for up to four vehicles plus a double garage with additional space for two cars.

23 Vaughan Way presents a beautiful family home with generous accommodation throughout with a fantastic garden, driveway and garage parking, and the additional benefit of approximately two and a half acres of land. An early viewing with Susan Payne Property is highly recommended.
