Dating back to 1860, this magnificent property is a true masterpiece, blending the elegance and charm of a bygone era with modern amenities and luxuries. The property has been lovingly owned by the current vendor for the past 36 years who has ensured a well-maintained home and applied graceful interiors throughout, perfectly complementing the period grandeur. Providing generously proportioned accommodation, the design of this property ensures that it offers unobstructed, far-reaching views of the surrounding countryside and the sparkling sea in the distance which can be admired from the living quarters and the majority of the bedrooms with an extensive south-facing balcony spanning the width of the property, from which you can fully appreciate the picturesque outlook.

Upon entering the villa, the impressive entrance hall provides a sense of grandeur which echoes throughout the home. The entrance hall proceeds to three spacious reception rooms, each with its own serene ambience and purpose, whether it be a formal dining room, a cosy library, or a comfortable family room. The ground floor is also home to a delightful kitchen-breakfast room, and a ground-floor cloakroom providing extra convenience for guests. From the kitchen is access to the lower ground floor level which gives access to the triple garage, and comprises a utility room with a cloakroom plus an outdoor drying area, and a large home study providing a fantastic solution for a private home business set-up. The six bedrooms of this Victorian villa are spread across the two upper levels, offering privacy and tranquillity to its occupants. The principal suite is a haven of luxury, featuring a spacious bedroom with an open plan aspect to an opulent en-suite bathroom with a freestanding bathtub and a separate shower. Each of the remaining bedrooms are served by a bathroom or shower room located on each floor with an en-suite allocated to bedroom two. Maximising the glorious views from its elevated position, the fourth reception room, utilised as a drawing room, is located on the first floor and could equally provide the flexibility to be an additional luxurious suite if desired.

With a secure gated entrance, the villa occupies beautifully tired south-facing grounds with an extensive driveway leading to an integral triple garage and a veranda at the front of the property from which you can admire the views while basking in the sunshine. The highlight of the outdoor space is undoubtedly the swimming pool, providing a refreshing oasis and fun family gatherings on warm summer days. Offering a convenient space for changing and poolside refreshments, the accompanying pool house is fitted with a kitchen, a shower room plus a separate cloakroom, and incorporates a living area for relaxing and entertaining. Beyond the pool area, a lower level of the garden has recently been planted with an assortment of new sapling fruit trees, ready for the new owners to enjoy their flourishing fruits and pretty springtime displays over the years.

Located on the East side of the Isle of Wight, a short distance from the seaside towns of Ryde and Sandown, The Mount enjoys an enviable position within the historic village of Brading. With its famous iron bullring in the centre of the village, Brading boasts a local store and a good range of pubs and eateries as well as a local primary school. The property is well-connected to the surrounding countryside and rural footpaths including a spectacular trail across Brading Down which passes Nunwell Hangar, a small copse filled with large Beech trees providing the perfect sanctuary for the Isle of Wight's red squirrel population and a whole host of wildlife. Brading enjoys direct transport links via bus and train services to the seaside town of Ryde which provides high-speed ferry connections to the mainland and boasts long sandy beaches as well as plenty of amenities within the high street. In the opposite direction just over a mile away, is the popular seaside town of Sandown which also has a bustling high street and boasts award-winning beaches with a range of water sports on offer.

Welcome to The Mount
