A former gardeners cottage for the neighbouring Stonepitts House estate, Stonepitts Cottage is a charming detached property which has been extended and upgraded by the current owners to create a wonderful family home. The updated layout is modern and flowing, and fresh, elegant design and décor perfectly complement the period character of the original building. Upgrades include fabulous double-glazed windows, gas central heating, the addition of a wonderful sunroom, beautiful contemporary kitchen and utility room and a luxurious ensuite bathroom. The bustling town of Ryde, with its sandy beaches, eclectic mix of shops and restaurants as well as the Independent Ryde School is within walking distance or just a short drive away. In the other direction is the town of Newport which boasts a range of shops and restaurants, all less than six miles from the cottage. Binstead village is well serviced by a Post Office and general store as well as a family-friendly gastropub, a local community centre and Ofsted rated 'good' primary school. Providing good connectivity to many Island-wide amenities, this home is within very close proximity to bus stops on the Southern Vectis route between Ryde and Newport, which serves the village every ten minutes during the day.

Spacious and naturally light throughout, accommodation comprises a welcoming porch and lobby, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, utility room/cloakroom and a glorious sunroom on the ground floor, with three double bedrooms, one of which is ensuite, and a family bathroom on the first floor.
