Making the most of a prime position overlooking the award-winning golden beaches of Sandown Bay, this spacious apartment is situated on the south-west corner of the third floor of the iconic Napoleons Landing building, which was constructed at the turn of the 21st Century. Number 49 has twin aspect glazing and three balconies, which combine with fresh white décor throughout to create a bright ambience with an abundance of glorious coastal light. Accommodation comprises a communal hall, with a lift to the third-floor communal landing, an entrance hall, a spacious lounge/diner with a balcony, a kitchen with a balcony, two double bedrooms, with the primary suite benefitting from an ensuite and a balcony, and a family bathroom. The building also features covered, gated parking with a traffic light entry system and a bin storage area.

Located on the sought-after esplanade, Napoleons Landing is perfectly positioned to take full advantage of the fabulous, panoramic views across the bay and provides easy access to the beach and seafront cafes, yet is within short walking distance of the town. The town centre has a range of shops and restaurants, and excellent Island wide transport links are very close by including bus and direct train links to Ryde and its mainland ferries. A network of coastal footpaths are to be found moments from the apartment, extending to Shanklin in one direction and to Yaverland and on to the iconic white cliffs of Culver in the other direction.

Welcome to 49 Napoleons Landing

From the stunning esplanade, a nautically inspired hardwood front door leads into a smart communal entrance hall, with a lift providing access to all floors. On the third floor, a well-presented communal landing gives access to number 49.

Entrance Hall

The freshly decorated white décor, and light, bright ambience starts in the entrance hall and flows throughout the apartment. There is a secure entry phone system, and doors lead to the lounge/diner, both bedrooms and to the family bathroom.
