Beautifully maintained, updated, and lovingly cared for over the last 23 years of ownership, this charming cottage boasts fresh neutral interiors and is immaculately presented, ready for new owners. Comprising a porch that leads into the dining room or entrance lobby, this space connects to the living room, stairwell, and the kitchen-breakfast room. The kitchen-breakfast room flows through to the rear lobby and the bathroom, located on the ground floor. The rear lobby opens into a large conservatory to the rear, which enjoys the morning sunshine and views over the garden. Enjoying an east to west facing position, the garden bathes in sunshine through most of the day and offers places for al fresco dining as well as a section of lawn to one side.

The property is just a short five-minute walk from Newport High Street, which provides an array of shops and supermarkets, cafes, bars and restaurants, and a cinema, plus it is a short distance from a relaxing, flat walk to the picturesque Island Harbour along the peaceful Medina Estuary which is a haven for plenty of local wildlife and plants, including wading birds. Some of the island's top attractions are located in Newport, including the multi-award-winning Monkey Haven, English Heritage's Carisbrooke Castle, and the popular Robin Hill Country Park. With the Isle of Wight College located on the outskirts of Newport, there is also a good choice of schools close by at the primary and secondary levels. Frequent bus routes serve nearby Furrlongs, and island bus services connect in Newport town centre, linking to other major towns of the Island, including intermediate villages. Being centrally located means you're never far from the wonderful things that the island has to offer.
