Built approximately 300 years ago, this historic stone cottage blends original character with modern living. The accommodation comprises a porch leading into a cosy living room, which provides access to both the snug and the kitchen at the rear. The kitchen enjoys lovely views over the garden and also leads to a ground-floor bedroom and bathroom. Stairs from the living room rise to the first floor, where there are two additional bedrooms, one of which benefits from an en suite.

Attached to the cottage is a further section of accommodation consisting of an entrance hall, living/dining room, bedroom, and kitchenette — offering excellent potential to become fully self-contained.

The rear garden creates a wonderful private outdoor space, mostly laid to lawn and complemented by mature planting and countryside views. The large front driveway provides parking for several vehicles and leads to the garage/workshop.

Chale is a popular rural village on the south coast of the Isle of Wight, moments from the dramatic coastline of the West Wight. Newport, with its full range of shops and amenities, is just a ten-minute drive away. Greenedge is perfectly positioned for exploring some of the Island's finest countryside and unspoilt beaches. Nearby, the renowned Wight Mouse Inn and several other eateries are easily reached. Bus Route 6 Southern serves the village, providing convenient links to Newport, Ventnor, and surrounding villages, while the Yarmouth-Lymington ferry is less than half an hour away.
