LOCATION

The town of Girvan lies around two miles to the south of Ayr and around 30 miles to the north of Stranraer. The town lies on the A77 roadway which links with both settlements and also the city of Glasgow to the northeast.

Girvan forms part of the South Ayrshire jurisdiction and is a popular seaside resort on the Clyde Coast and sits on the South West Coastal 300 route. The town has a beautiful beach with views to Ailsa Craig with trips to the island in the summer months attracting good tourist trade and is popular with walkers having both coastal and forest walks within easy reach of the town and for keen golfers the world famous Turnberry is also nearby.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a mid-terraced two storey unit and is of traditional construction with a large I-shaped open plan amusement arcade at the ground floor with a residential flat located on the upper floor as well as a disused flat. The arcade benefits from large timber bi-folding doors to the front. The access to the rear courtyard is by way of a timber door situated on the eastern side of the property.

Internally the property is currently fitted out at ground floor level in keeping with its current use as an amusement arcade with storage situated to the rear of the west section of the ground floor building. At first floor there is a two bedroomed residential flat situated on the eastern section of the building and a disused property to the west which is accessed from the storeroom on ground floor.

Planning permission has been granted for the redevelopment of the building to form a ground floor flat and maisonette flat whilst retaining the current first floor flat.
