

Shrewsbury Road, Redhill

Offers in excess of £685,000

Keeping with the properties age, we have a mixture of old and new style characteristics making this a desirable family home.

With a modern log burner “lovely to cosy up to in the winter” traditional wooden floors throughout, traditional wooden double glazed sash windows with shutters, a new bathroom and a new kitchen all keeping inline with the Victorian house aesthetic.

I have fully enjoyed living here for the past five years, the neighbourhood proximity to local amenities and schools. And excellent transport links from Redhill and Reigate stations. Opening up travel to London, Brighton and beyond. I hope you enjoy the house as much as I have.

Set in one of the most desirable areas that Redhill has to offer, this elegant four bedroom semi detached residence is bought to the market in exceptional decorative order throughout.

The classic red brick exterior exudes timeless charm, whilst the interior boasts a complete modern overhaul. This beautiful home features a driveway for ample off street parking and a private west facing garden ideal for hosting and relaxation in the sun.

Impeccably presented and thoughtfully designed, this home offers both charm and contemporary comfort.

The ground floor hosts two spacious reception rooms, one with a log burner fitted for those more cozy evenings. The modern kitchen has just been fitted this week and overlooks the landscaped garden.

The bedroom accommodation is split between the first and second floors. The bedrooms are well proportioned and are serviced by a spacious family bathroom which has also been fitted in the last 12 months. There is a separate toilet for added convenience.

Shrewsbury Road is a leafy residential road in a highly sought after location. You are walking distance from both Redhill & Reigate towns, mainline railway stations and your pick of countryside walks.
