£900,000

“

We have lived here for 11 years and during that time has been a fantastic home to 2 adults, 2 teenagers and 4 cats! The house was perfect in that it provided enough space for everyone to have their own room but also having the open living space and garden for time together and entertaining. The location was ideal for us with access to great local facilities, schools and colleges. We have the beautiful countryside and great walks and bike rides right on our doorstep. Another big draw was also having the rail links to London and Brighton and we regularly travelled the short distance to both.

Nestled within a leafy part of Redhill, this five-bedroom semi-detached home offers a harmonious blend of practicality and comfort.

The five generously sized bedrooms cater to the needs of family life. Two of these bedrooms boast en suite bathrooms, providing convenience and privacy. Meanwhile, the remaining three bedrooms share a well-appointed family bathroom—a thoughtful arrangement for family living.

Throughout the home, meticulous attention has been paid to decorative details. From the soothing color palette to the carefully selected finishes, every corner exudes warmth and elegance.

There are two expansive reception rooms. Separated by an elegant archway, they offer versatility - whether you envision a cozy reading nook, a home office, or a lively entertainment area.

At the rear of the ground floor is an impressive kitchen / diner which is large enough to house the culinary enthusiasts as well as family meals. There are French doors leading out to a sun-kissed south / west facing landscaped garden.

The property benefits from being a stones throw from Redhill train station which is ideal for commuters. There are also fantastic pubs, schools and amenities locally.
