Located in the highly sought after development. This ground floor, two bedroom retirement home is not one to be missed.

Conveniently located and only 0.6 miles from Redhill Town centre and station, you shall benefit from all the local amenities that Redhill has to offer.

Benefitting from two double bedrooms, this property is a perfect spot for friends or family to visit, all whilst being serviced with the open plan living and kitchen area which is great for entertaining.

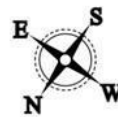

With French doors directly leading to a secluded gated area, this is a fantastic spot which also is a real sun trap. If further outside space is required, you shall find a larger communal garden just a few seconds away from the properties front door.

Having regular social activities with the residents of the development, you also have a communal lounge, kitchen, laundry room, guest suite, resident parking and a management team who really go that extra mile to look after and care for all residents.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, a viewing is highly recommended to appreciate everything that it has to offer.
