This chain-free three-bedroom detached bungalow with a large tandem garage is set on a substantial plot in a desirable location and offers comfortable and convenient living space. Nestled in the picturesque setting of Salters Lane, Lower Moor, the detached bungalow boasts a substantial plot, providing plenty of outdoor space for gardening, relaxation, and outdoor activities. A driveway gives ample parking space for multiple vehicles.

Upon entering the bungalow, you'll discover a well-appointed and spacious interior. There is a welcoming living room and a spacious conservatory which serves as a versatile extension of the living space and offers panoramic views of the large rear garden. The kitchen features ample storage space, and sleek countertops. It is designed with functionality and style in mind, providing a comfortable space for culinary pursuits.

The property comprises three bedrooms, each offering comfortable living space and the potential for customisation according to personal preferences. The master bedroom features built-in wardrobes and has a large window, allowing for plenty of natural light.

The property's substantial plot offers endless possibilities for outdoor activities, gardening enthusiasts, or the potential for future expansion or development, subject to necessary approvals. The large tandem garage provides secure parking, along with additional storage space for tools, equipment, or recreational items.

Being chain-free simplifies the buying process and allows for a smoother and potentially faster transaction, providing peace of mind to both buyers and sellers.

Situated in Lower Moor, the property enjoys a tranquil rural setting, offering privacy, peace, and a connection to nature, while still being within easy reach of local amenities and transport links. Lower Moor, situated in the district of Wychavon just off the A44 between Wyre Piddle and Fladbury, benefits from a village hall, recreational park, the popular Aztec Adventure where one can enjoy a range of watersports and the traditional family run Old Chestnut Tree Inn.
