Stairs with built-in storage rise from the sitting room to the first floor, adding both functionality and charm to the layout.

Upstairs, two generously proportioned double bedrooms await, each featuring built-in wardrobes and stylish ensuite bathrooms for added comfort and privacy. Additional storage is thoughtfully provided on the landing, ensuring a clutter-free living space.

Boasting a double carport, a generously sized garage, and ample additional parking, the property offers exceptional convenience for modern family living. To the rear, a beautifully landscaped garden creates a tranquil outdoor retreat, featuring private alfresco dining areas, a raised lawn, and a variety of mature trees and shrubs—perfect for entertaining, play, or quiet relaxation.

BADSEY

Badsey is a village and civil parish in the Wychavon district of Worcestershire, England, situated approximately two miles east of Evesham in the Vale of Evesham. The village has a rich history dating back to at least Roman times, with its name believed to derive from the Old English "Baeddi's Island," referencing its location near the River Avon.

Today, Badsey is a thriving community with a range of local amenities, including a primary school, a post office, a village hall, and several shops and pubs. The village is also home to St. James' Church, a Grade II listed building dating back to the 12th century, featuring a stunning Norman doorway, a 14th-century font, and a 15th-century tower.

The village is served by the Badsey and Aldington Parish Council and is part of the Mid Worcestershire parliamentary constituency. It lies within the WR11 postcode district and is approximately 87 miles from London.
