Description

The property comprises the whole of the first floor of a brick built mid terrace property under a pitched tiled roof. The upper floors are accessed through a central doorway which provides access to a communal stairway

Location

York is an important and historical principal commercial centre in the North of England, located 22 miles north-east of Leeds, 20 miles east of Harrogate and 12 miles east of the A1(M) motorway. It is widely acknowledged as being one of Europe's most attractive cities and principal tourist destinations, able to boast a number of major companies including Nestle, Aviva and Shepherd Building Group.

Micklegate is situated within York City Centre and is an established secondary retailing parade between the prime shopping areas and the mainline Railway Station, popular with professional occupiers including property consultants, surveyors and employment agencies. The property is situated on the southern side of Micklegate, to the west of the River Ouse and approximately midway between George Hudson Street and Skeldergate.
