Description

The property is situated close to its junction with North Park Road and Station Bridge close to Harrogate Town Centre. East Parade is a major thoroughfare on the periphery of the Town Centre and used to access the Asda supermarket on Bower Road. The subject property forms a four storey Victorian end terrace property of stone construction surmounted by a pitched tile roof with parking for two cars at the rear. The premises are currently of mixed use with three rooms on the ground floor and part of the first floor used as offices/studio (and two rooms residential) and a substantial apartment of a high specification over the whole of the second floor with the basement currently used as storage.

Location

Harrogate is located approximately 17 miles north of Leeds, 24 miles west of York, 11 miles west of the A1(M) and 9 miles from Leeds/Bradford Airport.

Terms

The property is available for sale on a freehold basis with full vacant possession upon completion.

Town Planning

The property is of mixed use and could continue as such. Alternatively the property could be converted entirely into residential which may be allowable under Permitted Development Rights subject to obtaining necessary consents.
