Description

Albert House offers a rare opportunity to acquire a Georgian stone built townhouse in the centre of Harrogate for renovation.

Currently presented as two separate two bedroom flats over the ground and first floor, the property could be converted back to a single dwelling subject to planning permission. It also offers a basement and attic which are currently used as rough storage but have the potential to be developed to a more functional use.

There is a garden and parking area to the front of the property and a paved garden area to the rear.

Location

Albert House is situated on Belford Place, a desirable area in the centre of Harrogate at its junction with Belford Road and Tower Street, close to Victoria Avenue.

Harrogate is located approximately 17 miles north of Leeds, 21 miles west of York, 11 miles west of the A1(M) and 9 miles from Leeds/Bradford airport.

Harrogate is one of the largest commercial centres in North Yorkshire and is one of the leading conference and exhibition centres in the North of England.
