This classic Richmond Hill Victorian has been transformed into a sumptuous contemporary home. The house underwent a full back-to-brick, high-specification refurbishment which was completed in 2020. In collaboration with renowned architects at AR design studio, this home is fused with period-detailing and smart-home engineering with a sharp focus on modern design.

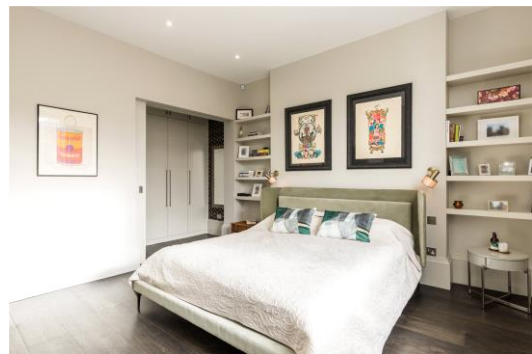

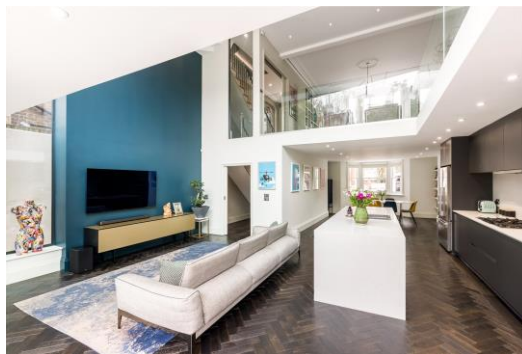

The property features a galleried two-storey zinc-wrapped extension with wrap-around glazing, thin framed sliding doors and a balcony overlooking the south-west facing rear garden. The lower-ground floor comprises; step-free side entrance, a WC, a boot-room hallway with fitted storage, built-in bench with pull-outs and a stunning open-plan kitchen-living-dining room with huge Silestone island and Gaggenhau appliances.

The raised-ground floor has a formal reception room with many of the original period features intact including a bay window with shutters, the original open fireplace and to the rear a stunning galleried extension to the balcony. On the upper-floors there are four large double bedrooms all with ensuite bathrooms, including a main bedroom with ensuite and walk-in wardrobe.

The rear garden is south-west facing and has been beautifully landscaped with mature trees, a patio and a garden office/studio providing additional accommodation.

To the front of the property there is off-street parking for two cars and level side-access for buggies, deliveries, pets and shopping. Other benefits include, under-floor heating throughout, double glazed hardwood sash windows, grohe/duravit fittings, electric blinds and much more.
