Location

Oakpark Business Centre commands a prominent and strategic position within a sought after estate to the south of St Neots.

Benefiting from immediate access to the A428 which in turn links up with the A1 approximately 1 mile to the east and provides direct access to the A14 and M11 at Cambridge approximately 15 miles to the west.

Description

The detached office building is currently split into two main areas, the first is a serviced business centre providing smaller offices rooms that can be taken individually or combined on all inclusive terms by way of licence agreement.

This flexible arrangement is ideal for start up businesses or those in their infancy allowing for easy in and easy out occupation whilst providing opportunities for businesses to grow and move within the business centre.

The remainder of the building provides flexible office accommodation across ground and first floors with a variety of rooms and suites that can be let individually or combined on exclusive lease terms.

Throughout the building there are five separate sets of male and female WCs and various kitchens / tea stations.

Further benefits include air conditioning, allocated parking and additional storage rooms that can be let by way of lease or licence subject to separate negotiation.
