FOR SALE BY PRIVATE TREATY (Subject to contract)

An attractive property situated on a small cul-de-sac of quality homes constructed by David Wilson Homes, a Barratt Home premium product.

This home is set in attractive well laid out gardens. Constructed in 2019 of brick elevations, PVCu double glazing and gas fired central heating under a tile roof.

This style of home is known as 'The Drummond' and is the only one built on this development and the internal layout provides four bedrooms which will all accommodate double beds and briefly comprises: front door to hall with W.C., and separate storage, stairs and door to lounge with front bay window and at the heart of the home is the bright and spacious open plan kitchen/dining & family area with central island bar and walk-in glazed bay with french doors to the patio which allows sunlight to flow into the room. Completing the ground floor is a separate utility with fitted units and plumbing and space for washing machine and dryer.

At first floor level the landing has an airing cupboard and doors to four bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and en suite to the master and space in the other bedrooms for fitted wardrobes, completing the accommodation is a family bathroom with separate large shower.

Externally there are attractive gardens to the front and rear together with a useful single garage and tarmac driveway for two cars.

Viewing is recommended to appreciate this home which is beautifully presented and has many upgrades to the original specification, truly one not to be missed!
