A beautiful Georgian-style country retreat in a rural setting, enjoying privacy and countryside views. Impeccably-well presented throughout, Wivelrod Farm House has generous room sizes and an attached annexe, with a combined floor area of 5,000 square feet. This elegant home is accessed via double wooden electric gates that open to a gravelled driveway. The symmetrical Georgian-inspired façade features an attractive lead canopy above the front entrance, setting the tone for the timeless elegance within.

Meticulously renovated throughout, the property seamlessly blends period features with modern comforts, including underfloor heating. The interior begins with an impressive reception hall, showcasing stone-tiled flooring, part-wood-panelled walls, and a graceful turned staircase leading to a galleryed landing.

The formal reception room is a bright, triple-aspect space, boasting a central marble-surround fireplace, oak flooring, and French doors opening onto the south-facing patio and garden.

At the heart of the home lies the exquisite John Lewis of Hungerford kitchen and dining room, finished in pale grey tones. This magnificent space opens into a triple-aspect conservatory with glazed doors that flood the area with natural light.

Additional ground floor features include a spacious utility room with steps leading to the cellar, a rear hall connecting to an attached annexe, a versatile study/extra bedroom with an en suite shower room, and a cloakroom.

The first floor boasts a generously proportioned landing leading to four double bedrooms, each featuring high-end en-suite bathrooms. The principal bedroom offers triple-aspect views, a luxurious en suite bath/shower room, and access to a dressing room with fitted wardrobes.

The attached annexe is perfect for guests, multigenerational living, or additional accommodation. The annexe has its own private entrance and also connects to the main house. It includes a ground-floor bedroom with an en-suite shower room and utility room, and an upstairs living room with a kitchenette.

The property's grounds are equally captivating. The level, south-facing lawn features a low hedge, offering sweeping views of glorious Hampshire countryside and a neighbouring arboretum. A stone terrace on the west side is perfect for enjoying sunsets, while a south-facing patio provides an inviting space for outdoor entertaining.

Additional amenities include a large barn and workshop, with separate vehicular access, and a greenhouse. A field/paddock of approximately 4.2 acres is located opposite the property.
