An exquisite, and characterful home, nestled within the peaceful and secluded country house estate in the beautiful South Downs National Park.

Originally part of the historic Swanmore Park estate, The Granary has been transformed into an elegant country home, with generously proportioned rooms, high ceilings and character features, and includes a useful self-contained annexe. The property has its own private garden and uninterrupted views over rolling countryside. The main house is a 19th-century mansion, an architectural masterpiece designed by Alfred Waterhouse, the visionary behind the Natural History Museum.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into an entrance hall, with original parquet flooring, a testament to the home's timeless charm. This inviting space provides access to the principal ground floor accommodation. The parquet flooring continues into the spacious and light-filled sitting room, where a dual-aspect design allows natural light to pour in, enhancing the room's warm and welcoming ambiance. A charming log burner serves as a delightful focal point, perfect for creating a cozy retreat on chilly winter evenings.

At the heart of the home lies a beautifully appointed elegant and classic country-style kitchen and dining area. This space is thoughtfully designed, featuring a traditional Aga, a classic Butler's sink, and bespoke wooden cabinetry.

Bi-fold doors open onto the garden, inviting the outside in, and making this a perfect spot for entertaining. Adjacent to the kitchen, a formal dining room offers a magnificent setting for meals, with panoramic views over the garden.

Off the kitchen, there is a self-contained annexe. With its own private entrance from the outside into an inner hallway, this area comprises a cozy sitting space, a comfortable bedroom, and a well-appointed shower room—ideal for guests, extended family, or independent living. The ground floor is further enhanced by a utility room with a sink and access to the rear courtyard, as well as a convenient WC. Rendering it perfect as an Air BnB option, private rental or ideal for multigenerational living.

On the first floor, you will find four double bedrooms, each with character features. The main bedroom suite is particularly impressive, boasting an array of built-in wardrobes and a wonderfully bright atmosphere, thanks to its dual-aspect design. Two beautifully designed family bathrooms complete the first-floor accommodation.

Outside, the property is approached via a private driveway that leads to a double garage and workshop, complete with electric roller doors. The expansive, well-maintained garden is predominantly laid to lawn, interspersed with mature shrubs, flower borders, and a charming pond. A sweeping patio runs along the rear of the house, providing the perfect setting for al fresco dining while soaking in the far-reaching views and breathtaking sunsets. A summer house, shed, and log store further complement the outdoor space, offering excellent storage solutions for garden essentials.

Upper Swanmore sits to the north of Swanmore village with a butchers, village shop with post office, church and village hall. Bishops Waltham, a quaint market town is under 10 min drive. The Hampshire Bowman Free House is also a short walk, as is Damson Hill Cottage a bespoke fitness and craft facility which has a strong community, woodland workspace and social calendar. There are numerous footpaths and bridleways from the door, great for hiking, biking and horse riding. The area is renowned for its excellent schooling and is within catchment for Swanmore Primary and Swanmore College of Technology. Swanmore tennis club and Corehampton golf club are a 5 min drive and There are two train stations equidistant Winchester and Petersfield, which you can get to in under 30mins and you can be in London within an hour.
