First time on the market since 1938, this charming semi-detached period cottage, dating from around 1900, is offered for sale with no onward chain. Situated in the heart of the highly sought-after village of Cheriton, the property occupies a generous plot with a sizeable rear garden and offers immense potential for further extension or modernisation, subject to the necessary planning consents.

Extended in the 1970s, the cottage already provides spacious accommodation, including a welcoming entrance hall leading to two well-proportioned reception rooms. To the rear, you'll find a kitchen, family bathroom, and a convenient cloakroom tucked under the stairs.

Upstairs, the generous landing gives access to four good-sized bedrooms. Two of these retain original cast iron fireplaces, and the home features high ceilings and large windows throughout, creating a bright and airy atmosphere.

Outside, the rear garden is mainly laid to lawn and bordered with mature shrubs, offering a peaceful and private setting. A driveway runs to the side of the property, with gravelled parking at the rear and potential to add a garage, subject to planning permission.

Cheriton is a picturesque and friendly village, renowned for its strong community spirit and historic charm, including its notable Civil War battlefield. Local amenities include a well-regarded primary school, village shop, pub, and church. Surrounded by rolling countryside, Cheriton is ideally positioned just 3 miles south of Alresford and 6 miles east of Winchester. Excellent transport links provide easy access to London, Southampton, and the Midlands, with mainline rail services available from Winchester and Petersfield.
