For those who want it all, Lowcross Farmhouse offers all the charm and beauty of a traditional Georgian country farmhouse conversion with all the comfort and convenience of a 21st century property. Originally part of the Carden Estate, Lowcross farm has been tastefully converted into a flexible family home, set within 5.2 acres with formal gardens, woodland, paddock, and pond. Perfect for a family large or small, particularly one with pets in tow, this stunning property nestled on the outskirts of Tilston village offers the privacy and fabulous views of the gorgeous Cheshire countryside while remaining in easy reach of cosy country pubs, useful shops and excellent schools. A country lane leads directly from the pretty village of Tilston to Lowcross Farmhouse, where electric gates lead to a large turning area and parking for multiple vehicles, with further parking including two charming timbered carports at the rear of the house. The building itself is set back from the road behind lawns set with shrubs and trees, and, in common with the rest of the gardens, angled south-west to catch the sun.

The Swan at Marbury, among others.

For those looking to commute or for day trips across the area, Lowcross Farmhouse lies close to the A41, with the M56 just 10 miles away and six miles from the station at Whitchurch.

Local schools:- Bishops Heber Malpas, Shocklach/Tilston and Malpas Primary Schools, Kings and Queens Chester 12 miles, Abbeygate 8 miles and Ellesmere College 16 miles.

LOCATION

The property is situated close to the village of Tilston, which boasts a primary school, general store/post office, The Garden Arms public house and a parish Church. The larger neighbouring village of Malpas has good local amenities including shops, restaurants, pubs, primary and secondary schooling. The Garden Park Hotel is also located within a short drive with two championship golf courses on site. The A41 and A49 provide a convenient link to the M53 and M56 which facilitate travel to a number of commercial destinations within the North West.

THE ACCOMMODATION COMPRISES:

PORCH

Canopy porch with two outside lantern-style lights. Wooden-panel entrance door with etched glass inserts and window light above to the Reception Hall.

RECEPTION HALL

4.67m x 2.59m (15'4 x 8'6)
Beamed ceiling with ceiling light point, double radiator with thermostat, decorative tile floor and spindled staircase to the first floor. Wooden-panel doors to the Sitting Room/Study and Living Room.

SITTING ROOM

5.56m into window recess x 4.60m (18'3 into window recess x 15'1)

Impressive Inglenook-style fireplace with exposed brickwork, wooden beam and quarry tiled hearth housing a cast-iron log burner, beam to ceiling with light points, oak floorboards, two double radiators with thermostats, telephone point, window overlooking the front and tall window to side.

LIVING ROOM

5.49m x 4.55m (18 x 14'11)

Window overlooking the front and two windows to the side, two painted beams to ceiling, two double radiators, TV aerial connection, and chimney breast with tiled hearth, cast-iron open grate and wooden mantel. Wooden-panel door to Dining Room.

This house is packed with period character and allure, from its inglenook fireplaces to its exposed beams to its welcoming woodburning stoves, and this is evident from your first step into the hallway, with its original Ruabon tiled floor and wood panelled walls. From the hall, you have the choice of two light and airy living rooms, both with character fireplaces and giving a wealth of options – perhaps a comfortable living room for snuggling up with the family for movie nights, perhaps a grown up sitting room for coffee with friends overlooking the front garden, perhaps a spacious playroom or an attractive place to work from home.

Moving further into the house brings you to the hand painted kitchen with its range cooker and the large dining room with another wood burner and French windows onto the garden at the back of the house. The heart of the home, with plenty of space for family dinners and entertaining alike: in the winter, cosy up by the fire with hot mugs of cocoa, and in the summer throw open the doors and let the sunshine and warm breeze flood in.

Beyond the dining room, you'll find a shower room, a useful boot room with plenty of space for coats and wellies for the bracing country walks that lie just beyond the door, and a spacious utility room conveniently close to both the kitchen and the back stairs. At the back of the house, there is an annexe with French limestone tiles and underfloor heating that includes a welcoming snug, its own shower room and a cosy mezzanine bedroom. This could easily be converted to a completely independent living space – perfect for overnight guests, a teen looking for a little more independence, or an elderly parent. Upstairs, there is a family bathroom with period fittings and four large bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes and three of which feature original fireplaces, adding to the rustic charm of this beautiful family home. The master bedroom in particular offers an entire suite of rooms, including a light and airy dressing room with plenty of wardrobe space and a private bathroom with its own bath, perfect for relaxing at the end of the day with a drink and a good book.

On the second floor of the main part of the house there is a fifth bedroom and three further loft rooms with beautiful exposed beams which only add to the flexibility of this unique home – imagine more space to work from home, a gaming room, a teenage hangout or a cosy place to play.

Outside there is a large insulated workshop, a roomy clapboard garden store for those who love pottering around in the garden, and a stable and tack room for that dream of owning your very own horse.

The extensive gardens face south-west so that you can bask in sunshine all year round, while making the most of those summer evenings and some stunning sunsets – and when the temperature drops, head to the heated breezeway, which is also the perfect spot to enjoy an early morning cup of tea while listening to the birds that fill the lovely mature trees.

Lowcross Farmhouse is a paradise for children both inside (who wouldn't want to set up a secret den under those loft room beams?) and out, with a wendy house in the orchard with decking and a firepit, and a pleasant walk up the field to a wildlife pond, for catching tadpoles in the spring and poking around with fishing nets all summer long. With plenty of room to run and play, children of all ages can enjoy freedom to explore whilst being safe enough to put a parent's mind to rest.

Lowcross Farmhouse is beautiful at any time of the year, but it really comes into its own at Christmas, lit by twinkling fairy lights, warmed by woodfires and scented with cinnamon and pine. Enjoy a bracing winter walk – maybe at nearby Beeston or Peckforton – then hurry home to warm up with mulled wine and mince pies around the fire.

If you want to eat out, the Carden Arms, an excellent traditional (and dog-friendly) pub, which was awarded a Tripadvisor Travellers' Choice Award in 2022, is less than a mile away. Further afield, options include The Cholmondeley Arms, The Lion at Malpas The Hare at Farndon, and
